

Donald Larson is the President of C.E. Larson and Sons Inc., a steel forging manufacturer located in Chicago near the Bank's proposed principal banking premises. Mr. Larson has served on various boards within the Park Ridge High School district and is a past President of Medinah Country Club. He is a graduate of Iowa State University and the University of Illinois.