

Frank Reid is a project executive with a mechanical systems contractor (HVAC and plumbing) and has over 35 years experience in the industry. He is currently with Mechanical Inc., which acquired Grove Mechanical Contractors, the plumbing and mechanical contracting firm he founded in 1977. He is currently working on several LEED construction projects and is a LEED Accredited Professional (LEED AP) specializing in mechanical systems. Mr. Reid is a former Board member of the Plumbing Contractors Association of Chicago, was President of the Mechanical Contractors Association of Chicago, and is active in various other charitable, professional and fraternal organizations.